IHCA Member Receives 2009 Best Place to Work Recognition
Trilogy Health Services recognized for workplace practices

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indiana Health Care Association (IHCA) is pleased to recognize that one of its members, Trilogy Health Services, has been named one of the 2009 Best Places to Work (BPTW) by the Indiana Chamber. The BPTW program honors top companies in the state, as determined through employer reports and comprehensive employee surveys. The official results of the 2009 Best Places to Work program were announced on May 5, 2009 at the Indiana Chamber Awards Dinner.

“We are proud that Trilogy has received this prestigious award,” said Steve Smith, President of IHCA. “Trilogy has always demonstrated a commitment to outstanding workplace practices and is most deserving of this recognition.”

Trilogy Health Services is a customer service-focused provider of senior living and long-term health care services. The company, which was recognized in the Large-sized company category, operates 35 facilities and employs 3,066 employees in Indiana.

"We are honored to be recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Indiana," said Randy Bufford, President and CEO of Trilogy. "This award is a reflection of our employees' compassionate commitment to our mission of providing 'world class' customer service for our residents, their families and the communities in which we operate."

IHCA would also like to recognize its business partners that were named BPTW: Ice Miller LLP, Crowe Horwath LLP, and Krieg DeVault LLP.

About the Indiana Health Care Association (IHCA)

The Indiana Health Care Association is Indiana's largest trade association and advocate representing proprietary, not-for-profit and hospital-based nursing home and assisted living communities, adult foster care and adult day services. IHCA's 264 member facilities care for more than 25,000 of Indiana's geriatric and developmentally disabled citizens, the majority of whom are low-income Medicaid recipients.
